Dear Sally,

Your posters are now up. I have to say this campaign is looking one of the best I ever seen - the standard of the work is really high, and the underground have really woken up to what we are doing and it shows in the presentation of the posters. I am sure that if you get a chance to see your posters in situ you will agree.

Your page on the web site will be up and running by Monday morning.

Have a great weekend

COOL!!

Is it on all the stations?

Hope they have a cooling effect on passengers as it must be boiling there today.

My old locals - Swiss Cottage and Finsbury Park!

Very exciting...and looks fantastic!

I think I will have to book my commission from you soon, before you are way out of my price range.

Sally Bamber

That's brilliant!
I shall take a special trip to see it tonight at Finsbury Park.

Sally

Well done. This painting is on a photo of mine taken at your exhibition.

How proud am I...of you!

That looks great. I love the way the picture develops. I think once I was very critical of your work, which a friend should be of course, but now it seems I look at your work, and I need to look at more for sure, because I can't find anything to criticize anymore!

Hey Mark,

This is great. I remember meeting your sister years ago (not sure if it was the Paleolithic or Mesozoic era). Anyway, I really like her work. There is a great American Portrait painter called Alice Neel. Her style reminds me very much of Ms Neel's. If she does not already know her, I think she would appreciate her work.

Speak soon,

I've been circulating your message to mates. Lots of nice congratulatory responses, one though pointed out that it was neatly positioned below the word "cottage", which you probably know has a very distinct gay meaning.

Will explain if I have to.

Wow! what a fabulous piece of modern art!

Hi Sally,

Well done you, I will keep an eye out for them, though regrettably I am mainly a Northern liner.

Stephen

Well done - looks superb.
We'll try and catch it when we're down.

Thanks for this Sally. Get a kick out of watching it every time - still can't get my head around how you do it!!!!

see you soon,

Cheryl

Cheryl

That has to be the best response ever - thank you!

Sally

Sally Bamber

Oh good - that surprises me though!!

Been thinking about this actually.
Just as a matter of interest why did you start with the eye sockets?
Do you always do that, - and if so why? If not, why did you do that with this person? Is it something about the 'geometry' of his face, or more to do with him / what kind of person he is, etc etc. I'm intrigued.

Cheryl

Hi Sally -

Congratulations!! The link to the video is amazing too.

all the best

Great news - congratulations !!

Loved the portrait on the web:
really superb.

Sally - the underground poster is absolutely knock-out! I haven't been travelling on the underground recently, but will look out when I do.... it's a great way to reach out.

Hello Sally

Congrats on your
'Underground' project.

Freda

Dear Sally,

Congratulations on your show.
Very impressive.

Unfortunately I will be missing them, as we are in Mexico for the next three weeks on holidays.

Well done, best of luck.

Congratulations Sally. We are on holiday but I will look for your work on Monday - it will cheer me up on the way to the office after being off for two weeks.

Clare

Thank you for sending through your exhibition thing on the underground. I've been looking at your painting of the face, I looked at it several times. It's fascinating. Was that interesting to do? Do you exhibit?

Victoria

Sally Bamber

Also meant to say...congrats on the underground poster stuff - really terrific!!!

Best for now,

Chris

Dear Sal the Wal:

I liked your picture on the Tube thing - although I really think you need to do a portrait of someone in the media eye to get the next big lunge in your career. Nobody's done Victoria Beckham - why not give her the Annigoni treatment?

Thank you.
