

WELCOME

Welcome to the historic setting of John Ruskin's former Lakeland home. Brantwood courses have a character and quality all of their own. Come and be inspired.

Surrounded by the glorious Coniston fells, with half a mile of lake shore and 250 acres of woodlands, meadows and gardens to explore, there is no more inspirational environment than Brantwood in which to study. Whether you are looking to expand your horizons, deepen your knowledge or learn new skills, the combination of expert tutors, good food, great company and, now, the chance to stay in our newly refurbished accommodation, all add up to a truly memorable experience!

There is no more inspirational environment in which to study.

TO BOOK

Please contact Brantwood by phone, email or letter. Payment can be taken over the phone using a debit or credit card, or you can send a cheque made out to Brantwood Trust. Full payment is taken for day courses when the booking is made and a £45 deposit taken for all other courses. The balance will be due 4 weeks before the course start date.

A 50% deposit will be taken for accommodation bookings with the balance due 4 weeks before. The deposit also acts as a cancellation fee if you cancel a booking within 4 weeks of your arrival date.

ACCOMMODATION

Staying at Brantwood is one of the delights of studying here, with all its many wonders literally on your doorstep.

Part of the pleasure of a course is spending time in good company and immersing yourself in the whole experience. Brantwood Lodge has been newly refurbished and will sleep up to 9 people. The Lodge enjoys wonderful views across Coniston Water. There is a large communal kitchen/diner/living room with a wood burning stove. You can even bathe in Ruskin's original bath! The B&B rate is £50 per person per room/£35 per person for shared occupancy of a twin room. Breakfast is provided in the kitchen for guests to help themselves. Accommodation can also be booked for partners in double rooms at the same B&B rate.
