

Printfest Privacy Statement

I am committed to protecting your privacy. I will only use the information that I collect about you lawfully (in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998).

I will collect information about you for one reason only, to keep you informed about my workshops and projects I am co-hosting.

By adding your name to the Sally Bamber subscription form you will receive occasional emails that should be of interest to you.

The information I will collect about you:

- your name
- email address

I will never collect additional information about you without informing you of this beforehand. I do not use online payment methods.

The data I hold will be accurate and up to date. You can check the information that I hold about you by emailing us. If you find any inaccuracies I will delete or correct it promptly.

The personal information that I hold will be held securely in accordance with my internal security policy and the law.

I will not share your information with any 3rd party, either in the EEA (European Economic Area) or outside this area.

I may use technology to track the patterns of behaviour of visitors to our site. This can include using a "cookie" which would be stored on your browser. You can usually modify your browser to prevent this happening in you want to. The information collected in this way can be used to identify you unless you modify your browser settings.

If you have any questions/comments about privacy, you should contact me. If you want to unsubscribe from my list you can do so at any time.
